

ZEN

BOAT TYPE: Sailboats - Dinghy

INTRO:

ZEN is a very simple 10 Foot boat ([www.dieci piedi.it](http://www.dieci piedi.it)) particularly narrow and therefore unstable. It is not the right boat for a beginner but, in the hands of a good helmsman, it may be fast.

DESCRIPTION:

ZEN is of simple construction, light, quite narrow and therefore unstable. It is for this reason not the right boat for a beginner but in the hands of a good helmsman, it may be undoubtedly fast. As sail plan we have adopted the simplest type, the catboat, with a generous sail area for competition. For a normal use a smaller sail may be used as the boat does not require a large sail area.
